

Start Online, Graduate On-Campus

Whether you're unable to travel, have commitments back home, or simply want to get ahead, starting your Arizona degree online provides a flexible choice for any student around the world. We invite you to become a Wildcat from Day 1 by starting your degree online with Global Direct.

With Global Direct, students can start their degree online and Transition to Main campus within 1-4 semesters. You'll complete your degree and graduate on the University of Arizona's Main Campus in Tucson.

The courses you take through Global Direct (Online):

- satisfy UArizona degree requirements
- are taught by outstanding, well-qualified faculty
- are professionally designed and created specifically for online learning
- are delivered asynchronously (time zones don't matter)
- look the same on your official university transcript (no online designation)
- are taken with other University of Arizona students around the world and on the main campus
- are priced by the credit hour and tailored to the country in which you will study
- will save both time and money.

You can add even more value to your Global Direct (Online) experience by choosing a Global Location to support your online studies. Global Locations offer the chance to live and study with a global community. All Global Locations ensure a safe, engaging place to study and gain access to high-speed internet. Ask an Enrollment Counselor about Global Locations near you!
