

Study Arizona

Study Abroad during your Arizona Dual Degree or Global Direct online studies

Earning a University of Arizona degree overseas? Whether you are pursuing your Bachelor's degree with Global Direct online, or earning a Dual Degree at a Global Location, the University of Arizona wants you to join us in the United States for a semester. Our main campus is located in beautiful and sunny Tucson, Arizona, and makes the perfect destination for you to study abroad.

How can I apply?

Global Direct Online: Complete 60 undergraduate credit hours with Global Direct online. Then, schedule a meeting with your International Advisor to begin the study abroad process.

Dual Degree: Contact your local Arizona representative

What does it cost?

Study Arizona offers an affordable, discounted tuition rate for students to join us in Tucson for one semester.

How does it work?

Our staff will support you in obtaining an F-1 student visa for entry into the United States. You will enroll in main campus courses with the support of an Academic Advisor and choose from 20+ on-campus residence halls or off-campus housing choices. Get ready to learn from top faculty and experience life as a Wildcat in the heart of campus. If you decide to stay for an additional semester, higher tuition rates will apply but you'll be on a path towards Optional Practical Training eligibility and the possibility of joining Arizona for graduate studies.